

Matching (more than one may apply)

- | | |
|--|--------------|
| 1. Epicenter of earthquake was just off the coast of this country. | A. Maldives |
| 2. Many of those killed by the waves in this country were European tourists. | B. Malaysia |
| 3. There is political unrest (civil wars, etc.) in these countries, making international aid more difficult to deliver. | C. Myanmar |
| 4. This country is composed of many small islands, most less than 1 meter above sea level. | D. Indonesia |
| 5. This country is ruled by a military junta that is not releasing much information. | E. Thailand |
| 6. This country lost more than 100,000 people to the waves,. | F. Sri Lanka |
| 7. 1200 miles of the eastern coastline of this country were affected, wiping out many fishing villiages and damaging the capital city of Madras. | G. India |
| 8. This country was shielded by the island of Sumatra, but still lost many people and sustained much damage | H. Somalia |
-
9. About 100 people were killed in this East Afrfrican country.
 10. In Thailand, what two industries were most affected?
 11. Which country includes the island of Sumatro and the city of Banda Aceh?
 12. In which country are the Tamil Tigers, a rebel group, cooperating with the government to help tsunami victims?
 13. In which country is the government requiring a military escort for all aid workers?
 14. List five non-governmental organizations (NGOs) working in the region to provide aid.
 15. The U.S. government (taxpayers) provided about $5 billion in federal disaster relief to the state of Florida after last year's hurricanes. How does this compare to U.S. government aid to the countries affected by the tsunami? How else is the U.S. helping? (use back)