

Putting Hurricanes on the Calendar

1: What would you recommend as the official starting and stopping dates for hurricane season in the Atlantic basin? Describe your reasoning. How would you respond to someone who thought that all year long should be considered hurricane season?

2: Looking at the 10-Day Points of Origin maps, describe some patterns you notice in where the storms begin from the May through November. Describe what you think might be responsible for these changes.