

Supported collaborations

- More than 420 million USD supporting 160 projects
- Engaging over 2500 participants in 72 countries
- Primary physical, social and biological scientists
- Computer science and others are increasing
- Growing representation from planning and management sector as stakeholders
- Training – transdisciplinary research
- Curriculum development

Sustain + Ability

Global Sustainability Scholars program is a life-long network of peer and professional change leaders in global sustainability.

Undergraduates from underrepresented groups

- Cohort model
- 3-year summer intensive program
- Work with Belmont Forum funded projects
- Build workforce of the future
- Increase diversity in sustainability science

future^{earth}
research for global sustainability

University of Colorado
Boulder

Earth
Leadership
Program

Knowledge to Impact

HOME

ABOUT

PEOPLE

PROGRAM

RESOURCES

STORIES

NEWS

We are embarking on a bold mission to scale the impact of academic researchers to solve sustainability challenges by co-designing and internationalizing our leadership training.

Read about the transition from the Leopold Leadership Program ●

Learn more about the design of the Earth Leadership Program ●

Read a perspective from Executive Director Sharon Collinge ●