

IINspire @ Wartburg Pre-Orientation Program

Career Exploration

Career: _____

Investigator (this is you): _____

What types of things do people with this career do?

What is the average salary range for people in this career?

How much education does someone with this career have?

What kind of weekly schedule does someone in this career have? (ie: 9-5, on call on weekends, some weekends and nights, etc)

Where might you live with this career? (ie: is it typically a rural or urban setting? are most jobs in one geographical region?)

How much travel is involved in this profession?

What opportunities for advancements are possible with this career?

What are some of the major contributions people with this career make in the world?

What is the most attractive thing about this profession?

What is the least attractive thing about this profession?

Sources for more information: