

Resources from NAGT for GRANT-WRITERS

Are you writing a proposal to fund your work in geoscience or geoscience education? NAGT's focus on supporting high-quality Earth education means that there are many ways we can support you. We have professional development and dissemination opportunities that you can write into your proposal budget, and we partner with individuals and organizations for single events and long-term projects.

Goal	NAGT Activity	Cost
Support graduate students and post-docs in successful career transitions	Annual Preparing for an Academic Career workshop for graduate students and post-docs	~$2500/person to support registration, travel, lodging
	Becoming an Inclusive Geoscience Leader Traveling Workshop for graduate students and post-docs in a department	$5000 workshop fee plus travel expenses for two leaders
Prepare faculty to be effective, inclusive research mentors	Virtual Inclusive Mentoring workshop tailored to your research group's needs	$2500 for a 3-session workshop
Support the success of early career faculty	Annual Workshop for Early Career Geoscience Faculty for faculty in the first three years of their position	$1400/person for registration plus travel expenses
Share your work and support your own and your students' professional development	Biennial Earth Educators' Rendezvous	$2000/person supports registration and travel
Recruit participants and disseminate your results	Regular webinar series	$1200 per webinar
Publish your work	Journal of Geoscience Education	$1300 publication fee plus $3300 open access fee
Develop new curricular materials and make them widely available	Teach the Earth resource collection	Free to submit new activities and courses
Promote participation in your project's activities	Newsletter, social media	Free with membership

Ready to move forward? Other ideas? Get in touch: Anne Egger, NAGT Executive Director, exdir@nagt.org

The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that every receipt, invoice, and bill should be properly filed and indexed for easy retrieval. This is particularly crucial for businesses that deal with a large volume of transactions, as it helps in identifying discrepancies and ensuring compliance with tax regulations.

Next, the document addresses the issue of budgeting and financial forecasting. It suggests that businesses should regularly review their financial statements to assess their current financial health and make necessary adjustments to their budget. This involves comparing actual performance against the budgeted figures and identifying areas where costs are exceeding expectations.

The document also highlights the significance of cash flow management. It notes that maintaining a healthy cash flow is essential for the long-term survival of any business. To achieve this, businesses should monitor their accounts receivable and payable closely, ensuring that payments are received on time and that outgoing payments are managed efficiently.

Furthermore, the document discusses the importance of risk management. It advises businesses to identify potential risks to their financial stability and implement strategies to mitigate these risks. This could include diversifying revenue streams, maintaining adequate insurance coverage, and establishing contingency plans for unexpected events.

In conclusion, the document provides a comprehensive overview of key financial management practices. It stresses the need for transparency, accuracy, and proactive planning in all financial decisions. By following these guidelines, businesses can ensure their financial stability and long-term success.